

THE DIAMOND APPROACH®

An Exploration of the Heart of Joy

A New Diamond Approach Group Forming

Children are often naturally joyful, spontaneously expressing their heart's delights and desires and moving freely toward whatever strikes them as interesting. As adults, we tend to associate the qualities of Joy with children; we have mostly forgotten that Joy is intrinsic to our nature, not to our age.

That idea itself might be hard to believe. Instead, we have whole industries of people teaching us how to go about finding it.

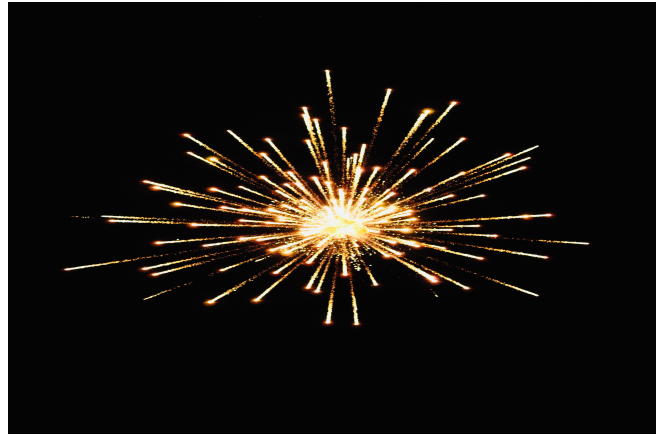

This retreat will continue our exploration of the actual living quality of our own heart that is Joy itself. We will see how, exactly, we lost contact with it, and discover how it is a living presence in our Being that truly cannot be lost.
